

THEY FAVOR HIGH LICENSE

In Immense Gathering of Catholics to Consider the Liquor Question.

Cardinal Gibbons Enunciates the Position of the Church, and Is Endorsed.

Mrs. Parnell's Refusal to Accept Aid of Any Sort From Her Son's Friends Not Their Fault.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 18.—An immense mass meeting, under the auspices of the Catholics, was held at the academy of music last night. The purpose was for the advancement of the high license movement. The meeting was presided over by Cardinal Gibbons, and upon the stage were Archbishop Ireland, Bishop of St. Paul, and Eder, of Cincinnati; Bishop Virtue, of England; Monsignor McColgan, and a large number of priests. In opening the meeting Cardinal Gibbons said: "I appear before you to-night not only as a churchman, but as a fellow citizen, anxious for the welfare of my native city. I believe the cause we are here to advocate to-night will enhance our welfare. It will be the means of bettering the condition of the poorer people and laborers. The movement we are striving for is for the laboring man's benefit, and it must and shall be successful."

Speeches were made by Rev. James Nugent, of England, and Rev. Dr. Cleary, of Wisconsin; Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, and Bishop Kerner. The following resolutions were adopted:

"That the clergy and laity of Baltimore, recognizing the gigantic evils of intemperance, imperiling the interests and well-being of state and society, and casting about for means which will diminish this evil and pave the way to complete moral restoration, believe they see this remedy in high license. If they have been backward in uniting in the sacred interests of truth and distinguished fellow-citizens in the holy cause, it is not from ignorance of the great danger, nor from a lack of heartfelt interest to avert it, but solely from their inability to compromise the sacred interests of truth by accepting certain positions which were sometimes found to be concomitants of all such movements under non-Catholic auspices."

"It is resolved that high license is the only feasible and peaceful means of exterminating the deluge of vices and crimes of which drunkenness is the fruitful source. License should be put so high as to make it practically prohibitory as regards the multitude of low saloons. Certain restrictions should be enacted as to time and place of sale, the number of saloons in any given radius should be limited by statute, and should not be allowed in churches or schools. Licenses should be given only to persons of tried character."

The Case of Mrs. Parnell.

BALTIMORE, N. Y., Nov. 18.—Dr. W. H. Shipp, of this city, attending physician of the Parnells for several years says that at no time since Mrs. Parnell took her residence at the "Ironside" has she lacked either for medicine or medical treatment. He further says that her present physical condition, considering her years is remarkable for its vigor. He stated this morning with reference to Mrs. Parnell's circumstances, that the Irish leaders never contributed to her assistance, because they never knew of the desperate condition of her affairs. An Irish nationalist said the statement is a fabrication. Irish leaders endeavored time and again to provide comfort for Mrs. Parnell, but through her unfortunate eccentricity she repelled every attempt, so matter how delicately made. Years ago, when the fund was raised for Parnell, he offered to relieve his mother of the encumbrances upon her property, but she declined his assistance. It is unfortunate, of course, that Mrs. Parnell should be reduced to anything like destitute circumstances, but she steadfastly refused advances and assistance from her son's best friends, and it is not on account of any inattention on his or their part that she may be in pinched circumstances now.

Herculean Strength
Continually on the strain, or overtaxed at intervals, is far less desirable than ordinary vigor perpetuated by rational diet and exercise, and abstention from excess. Professional pugilists and athletes rarely attain old age. As ordinary vigor may be retained by a wise regard for sanitary living, and for the protection against disease which timely and judicious medication affords, so also it may be lost through prolonged sedentary labor, uninterrupted mental strain, and foolish eating and drinking, the chief and most immediate sequence of all four being dyspepsia. For this condition, then, or in any way induced, and for its offspring, a failure of muscular and nerve power, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the prime and most genial of remedies. Not only indigestion, but loss of flesh, appetite and sleep are remedied by it. Indolent malaria and rheumatism are banished, and kidney, bowel and liver complaint removed by it.

Comme d'habitude.
All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

The use of calomel for derangements of the liver has ruined many a fine constitution. Those who, for similar troubles, have tried Ayer's Pills testify to their efficiency in thoroughly remedying the malady, without injury to the system.

Home Testimony.

HELENA, Oct. 7, 1887.
I was suffering from an unusually bad cough, my lungs were sore and congested, and I consulted one of the best physicians in Helena, whose prescriptions failed to relieve me. I became alarmed, and at the suggestion of a friend purchased a bottle of Ayer's English Remedy for coughs, and after taking it according to directions was completely cured. I therefore cheerfully recommend it.

JACOB SWITZER.
I had a racking cough and inflamed throat, and bought a bottle of Ayer's English Remedy upon the recommendation of a friend, and was entirely cured by it. I consider it a never failing remedy for a cough.

J. FELDERER.
Ayer's English preparations are for sale in Helena only by H. S. Hale & Co.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is purely a vegetable preparation, being free from injurious ingredients. It is peculiar in its curative power.

There was a terrible epidemic of dysentery and bloody flux in Pope county, Illinois, last summer. As many as five deaths occurred in one day. Messrs. Walter Brothers, of Waukegan, sold over 300 bottles of Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy during this epidemic, and say they never heard of its failing in any case when the directions were followed. It was the only medicine used that did cure the worst cases. Many persons were cured by it after the doctors had given them up. Twenty-five and 50-cent bottles for sale by H. M. Parnell & Co.

Peculiar

Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the curative value of the best known remedies. It is a vegetable kingdom. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "One Hundred Doses One Dollar." Peculiar in its medicinal merits, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has been the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "good name at home,"—there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad. No other preparation ever attained so rapidly nor held so steadfastly the confidence of all classes of people. Peculiar in the brain-work which it represents, Hood's Sarsaparilla combines all the knowledge which modern research has brought to the aid of medicine, with many years practical experience in preparing medicines.
